

Name: _____

Sentence Scramble

Directions: Read the sentences below. Together, they create a paragraph, but they are out of order right now. Using what you've learned about the main idea of a text and supporting details, put the sentences in order on the following page.

First, I made flyers describing my services and prices.

I've been in business for almost a year, and I am busier than ever.

Last summer I started a dog-washing business.

Mom and I delivered them to all the houses in our neighborhood.

Skipper's owner thought that I did such a great job that he told all his friends.

I hope to save enough to buy my own pet store one day!

A few days later, my neighbor's dog, Skipper, was my first customer.

