Poem: A Rainbow's Promise

In the sky, after the rain has gone,
A vibrant arc, a colorful song,
Red, orange, yellow, green so bright,
Blue, indigo, and violet's light.

With raindrops glistening, it appears,
A bridge from joy to all our fears,
A promise in colors, bold and wide,
A source of wonder, a comforting guide.

Its hues unite in a shining art,
Bringing hope to every heart,
Through stormy days and skies so gray,
What do you think these colors say?
